

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

Elizabeth Seton was a widow with five children when she became a Catholic. People gave her a hard time, but she did not give up her faith. Instead, she taught it to others by starting Catholic schools! Some women joined her in a life of dedication to Jesus. They became the American Sisters of Charity.