

When we pass near a church, we can go in and visit Jesus. He loves our company. When we enter and leave church, we bless ourselves with holy water. This reminds us of our Baptism.

